

Living with Parkinson's – Day 1: A Community Update

Learn from the experts about all aspects of Parkinson's disease — from diagnosis to the latest treatments, lifestyle issues, and speech and exercise therapies. Our team from the Parkinson's and Other Movement Disorders Center at UC San Diego Health will share the latest insights on ways to improve the quality of life for people with PD.

Webinar Details

Saturday, March 13, 2021
10:30am to 11:35am

Zoom Webinar
Register at link below to get log-in details.

Registration

Since UCSD's marketing team is not able to help this time, we are having our patient register through eventbrite, the link to register is:

www.eventbrite.com/e/living-with-parkinsons-series-a-community-update-tickets-141997350899

Registration is required by March 11, 2021

Webinar Schedule:

Day 1: March 13, 2021

10:30am – 10:35am
Welcome Introduction — 5 min
By Irene Litvan, MD

10:35am – 10:55am
Can Parkinson's Disease Look Like this? — 20 min
By Stephanie Lessig, MD

10:55am – 11:15am
What is not Parkinson's Disease — 20 min
By Irene Litvan, MD

11:15am – 11:35am
Q&A — 20min

Questions? Call 858-822-5871 or email Movementdisorders@health.ucsd.edu

UC San Diego Health