

AWARENESS AND PREPARATION FORUM:

Training for Houses of Worship, Businesses, Employers, and other Gathering Places

The Chula Vista Police Department is hosting a training session to bring awareness and learn about different strategies to overcome the challenges of an active shooter incident or other mass threat event.

This forum will include training tailored specifically for individuals responsible for places of mass gatherings, such as houses of worship, businesses, and employers.

Due to their specialized needs, this forum will not address concerns for schools and participants at scholastic institutions. While open to the public, some of the material may be too graphic for those under the age of 12.
