DEFINITIONS

"Garage Sale," for the purposes of this section, means a sale conducted by an individual homeowner, apartment dweller or occupant of a dwelling unit, for the purpose of disposing of unwanted or surplus household furnishings or other personalty, usually conducted in a garage in a residential zone and for which no inventory is kept and no sales tax is paid on the transactions thus carried out. It may, at times, be conducted by a combination of residential dwellers at a single location, and may take on the nature and character of a rummage sale or fund-raising event for civic or charitable purposes. Said garage sales shall not extend beyond a period of ten calendar days for any one sale. The term "garage sale" is not limited to sales conducted in the garage, but encompasses household sales conducted on any portion of the premises. _____ (initial)

REGULATIONS GENERAL

Any resident or group of residents, organization or club of the city may conduct a garage sale, as defined herein; provided, however, that a license shall first have been obtained from the city. There shall be no tax for a garage sale license obtained prior to the sale. If the license is not obtained prior to the sale, the license tax may be applied.

No more than two garage sales may be conducted by the same person or persons, or at the same place within the same calendar year. A garage sale license shall be limited to a period of ten consecutive days per sale. All items must be used goods and the property of those conducting the sale. The license may be secured at the Building Counter of the Department of Planning and Building. _____ (initial)

PROHIBITED ITEMS

It is unlawful for any person to exchange, barter, trade or sell at a garage sale the following items of personal property: Firearms, ammunition, explosives, animals and livestock, any item of personal property from which the serial number or identifying number has been removed, and any and all other items of personal property which may be prohibited from being exchanged, bartered, traded or sold by ordinance or resolution of the city, the county of San Diego, or the state of California. _____ (initial)

ADVERTISING SIGNS

No signs advertising garage sales are allowed except one unlighted sign not exceeding six square feet in area, located on the premises of the sale. Said sign shall be of a temporary nature and displayed not more than one week in advance of the sale, and removed not more than two days after the conclusion of the sale. _____ (initial)

==========

Under penalty of perjury I state that the person or persons conducting the sale are the owners of the property offered for sale; all of the goods are secondhand; and, no more than one previous such garage sale has been held within the calendar year.

I certify that I have read this application. I state that the information is correct, and I agree to comply with all information herein. I hereby authorize representatives of this city to enter upon the above-mentioned property for inspection purposes.
